

HAYES FARM 2022 DROP-IN CLASSES - ONLINE & ON-FARM

Drop-in classes are all only $5 each with your annual $20 NB Community Harvest Gardens Membership! Register in advance by completing the NBCHG membership form, and emailing hayesteachingfarm@gmail.com for detailed instructions.

We look forward to having you with us! hayesteachingfarm@gmail.com (506) 260 7932

Date, Time Topic Online/On-Farm Instructor

Fertility mgmt. Practices

Fertility Management Practices on-farm (cap of 20 Mark Trealout participants)

An introduction to, and critique of, the various fertility management practices at Hayes Farm (composting, kelp, heavy mulching, no till, cover cropping). A discussion of origins and ethics of purchased-in off-farm inputs.

May 11

9-11AM

May 12

9-11AM

Crop Planning 101

May 17

9-11AM

May 18

9-11AM

May 19

9-11AM

Seasonal Vegetables at HF - spring

May 24

9-11AM

May 25

9-11AM

May 26

9-11AM

Working With Soil / Working with Water. Regenerative Farming Theory

Working With Water with Mark Trealout

An introduction to how soil profiles effect water flow through the ecosystem - both above and below ground. An introduction to common irrigation options, and their effects on the farm and in the wider ecosystem. Understanding how topography and landscaping can influence water movement/catchment.

May 31

9-11AM

June 1

9-11AM

June 2

9-11AM